Edie & Eddy

About

Edie & Eddy provides you with three different ways to speak up for what you value. Sharing a Hairline base weight, each member of the Edie & Eddy superfamily has a different voice through treatment of contrast: a well-spoken Modern, an emphatic Slab and a crisply articulate Text. Together, they're an exploration of the possibilities of the variable font format.

Modern has a crisp texture with clear contrast between the thick and thin strokes of the letterforms. Straight, clear edges are combined with historically-informed softer shapes, true to the aesthetics of a modern typeface.

In the more experimental Slab Serif, all the daring characteristics of this superfamily are visible and its soft tone is expressed through curves and proportions. Bringing freshness and a little bit of controversy, unconventional contrasts connect the Slab to the Modern.

While the superfamily contains two extremes, Modern and Slab, the Text family is an alto tone. Its contrast is visible, but not as high and strict as the Modern's, and the Slab's stability brings a bass-tone to Text.

The vivid italics can express lucid opinions.

With high contrast and high in- and out-strokes, they have a clear rhythm. Slightly narrower than the upright, the italics brings a change of typographic colour to the table: to highlight, pronounce, or simply make a point. With the help of stylistic alternatives, a clearer cursive can be activated — with sans serif ascenders, other variants of a and g as well as sharper shapes of v, w and y. For those who want to further emphasise the soft tone of the italics, the script-like s can be activated.

Just like a good conversation, Edie & Eddy can be spiced up through a change of tone. Edie & Eddy has small caps, all kinds of figures and some rude, powerful and peaceful hand emojis. It covers the Latin alphabet, including Vietnamese glyphs. With each 8 weights from Thin to Black plus matching italics, the Families cover all designers' dreams.

Highlight key points with something different: the Edie & Eddy superfamily was designed to be used together. Combine the Modern with the Slab Italic, the Modern Italic to a Text, you get the idea. A heated discussion, a clear statement, a counter argument. All this and more is possible in a variable superfamily born to harmonise, and differentiate.
