Formulate began as a model alphabet for children who are just learning to read and write. The letterforms are closely related to how letters are written in early education while incorporating letter-construction methods from type design tradition.

Multiplexed styles add a lot of utility to this typeface. Styles can be easily layered and weights can be changed without reflowing text. This creates fun opportunities for creating custom looks or interesting animations.

Multiplexed

Every style is multiplexed, weights or styles can be changed with no text reflow.

Layer +
Layer = Layered

Styles can be layered to create more styles and fun colour combinations.

About The Designer

Alanna Munro is a type designer and lettering artist from Vancouver, Canada. She spends her time working with letters, being with her husband and two energetic boys, running, and playing video games. She founded Alanna Munro Type Foundry in 2020 as a place for her purpose-built typefaces to be available.
