The End User has not purchased the ownership rights to this font, but rather a license to use this font on a limited basis.

This basic license is intended to accommodate most personal and professional uses as in the course of everyday correspondence and document writing, or in the design of self-promotion and marketing pieces like business cards, newsletters, advertisements, signage, and brochures. The End User may use the licensed font to create images on computer screens (desktop images, web page designs, etc.), but may not place this font on any computer, website, or any other shared device or network for download or distribution to unlicensed third parties.

As each individual glyph contained in this font software is copyrighted to its respective creator, and each glyph was contributed in good will as part of this font created to benefit charity, we respectfully submit that the End User must not use the images (glyphs) in this font as the principal artwork in any item to be resold for profit. This includes, but is not limited to, coffee mugs and iconic t-shirts. The End User must not use the images (glyphs) in the font software as principal artwork in image or alphabet sets intended for resale, such as rubber stamps, sticker sets, and refrigerator magnets. In the case that the End User wishes to use images (glyphs) from the font software as principal artwork in an item to be resold for profit or other normally excluded uses as described above, the request would be considered based on the End User's assurance that a significant percentage of profits or other appropriate cash donation would be donated to international relief efforts for Lebanon, if the original creator or copyright holder of the glyph in question grants permission for such use. Please email libeirut2020@yahoo.com for further information.

3) Number of Users

This font software license is limited for use by five (5) users at a single site. All users must belong to the same company or household purchasing the font. Please email libeirut2020@yahoo.com for information on extended licensing.

4) Third Parties

You may provide the font to a graphic designer, printer or other service bureau that is working on your behalf only if they agree to use the font exclusively for your work, agree to the terms of this license, and retain no copies of the font on completion of the work. The End User may not provide the font or make it accessible to any other third parties.

5) Embedding

The End User may embed the licensed font into any document sent to third parties.

The font software may be embedded in documents that may be viewed, printed, and/or edited by any recipients within the company licensing the font. The font may be embedded in documents that may be viewed and printed (but not edited) by any recipients.

You may not under any circumstances embed the licensed font into software or hardware products in which the font will be used by the purchasers of such products.

6) Modifications

You may not modify, adapt, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or create derivative works based on the licensed font itself without the express prior written consent.
